SHARED ACCOMMODATION
Description

We are a family owned and operated rooming house in South Granville. We like to provide a quiet and safe environment for all. All rooms are furnished . Some rooms have a single bed others have a queen bed,always ask what type I have available. Prices vary, All rooms also have a bar fridge . There is a large shared kitchen which is fully equipped and living room Cleaning staff every week for all common areas , including all the bathrooms. Most guests prefer their own linens, however if you are coming from out of country, I can provide you some tell you purchase your own. there is a locked bike storage, coin operated maytag washer and dryer. There is a half months damage deposit,which you receive back if you leave the room as it was given to you

We are located near 4 major bus lines. We are a 8 min walk to VGH. We are located between Oak and Granville Streets. This is a safe, walking neighborhood.

Our family has been running the rooming house for over twenty years. We have seen people come and go, but all who have come live with us share one thing in common, they called our house home. We make sure to create a warm and welcoming home for all... Make our house your next new home!
